

SELECT GAMING KENT OPEN 2017: WOMEN'S SATELLITE TOURNAMENT

You are invited to enter the new Women's Satellite Tournament which is being launched this year as part of the 2017 Select Gaming Kent Open.

Our grateful thanks go to our tournament sponsor, Jonny Powell, who has increased his sponsorship commitment to cover the £500 prize money for the women's tournament.

Usual rules apply for Closed Satellite events. In our case, the tournament is exercising the right to extend entries to include junior players under the age of 17. This is to encourage entries from some very talented English junior players who would benefit from the experience of playing in an established, world-ranking tournament such as ours.
